

ESC 17 Gifted and Talented Coming Attractions Summer 2017

Face-to-Face G/T Updates:

- June 1: Thinking in Disguise: Opening Learning through Doodling
- June 8: Creating a Student Portfolio to use in Identification of the Gifted Student
- June 9: Using Lapbooks as a Teaching Tool for Thematic Units
- June 15: Makerspaces
- June 20: Administrator and Counselor Training: Nature and Needs and Program Options for Gifted Students
- June 27: How to Challenge and Differentiate for Gifted Students
- June 29: Every Gift Has a Story: Exploring Twice-Exceptional Issues
- July 20: Gifted Beyond the Content Areas: Using the Texas Performance Standards Project to Serve Gifted CTE, Fine Arts, and Athletics Students
- July 26: Thinking Inside the Box: Using Pixar in a Box to Engage Secondary Gifted and Talented Students
- August 2: Thinking in Disguise: Opening Learning through Doodling

Face-to-Face 30 Hour GT 30 Hour Seminar Series

- July 24: Day 1 - Nature & Needs of the Gifted
- July 25: -Day 2 - Identification & Assessment of the Gifted
- July 26: Day 3: Models of Differentiated Instruction and TPSP
- July 27: Day 4: Engaging Gifted Students By Adding Depth and Complexity
- July 28: Day 5: Creative and Critical Thinking

Online G/T Updates Available June 5th - August 25th:

Online G/T Updates through Responsive Learning's Texas Association for the Gifted and Talented On Demand

Now Available to
ALL Region 17
G/T Cooperative
Members:

Online GT 30
Hour Seminar
Series

Courses Run:
June 5—19
June 2—July 10
July 17—31
August 7—21

Gregory Reeves
ESC 17 Advanced Academics, G/T,
Secondary ELA Specialist
806-281-5818
greeves@esc17.net

Annie Padilla
806-283-5873
apadilla@esc17.net